

Key Stage 1 Reading Prompts

I am Rosie the Rememberer. My reading superpower is to recall information.

Reading Superpower Strength: 2

- Find the word that means XXX
- Recall the main points of the story
- What/ when/ where/ how/ why questions

Hello, I'm Ugo the Understander. My reading superpower is to understand information and explain ideas.

Reading Superpower Strength: 4

- Describe why...
- Explain why...
- Summarise the story in 5 sentences

Hello, my name is Alex the Applier. My reading superpower is to use the information I read in a new way.

Reading Superpower Strength: 6

- Show that you understand- make a prediction
- Use the clues to say why
- Relate the event to you

I am Andy the Analyser. My reading superpower is to closely examine and think about the information I read.

Reading Superpower Strength: 8

- Examine the information- is it true?
- Select some words that mean XXX
- Identify the clues

Hello, I am Ellie the Evaluator. My reading superpower is to give an opinion about what I read.

Reading Superpower Strength: 10

- Compare the story to another
- Judge whether you think it is a good book or not
- Would you recommend it to a friend?

I am Chloe the Creator. My reading superpower is to create something new from the information I read.

Reading Superpower Strength: 12

- Design the outfits for the characters
- Plan an alternative ending
- Imagine if the ending was different?